

Steele Canyon High School Expected School-Wide Learning Results (ESLRs)

A Steele Canyon student will be an Effective Communicator

- Receiving information and constructing meaning through reading, listening, writing, and viewing skills
- Using verbal and non verbal techniques to communicate effectively
- Exchanging and processing information when collaborating
- Expressing ideas visually and physically

A Steele Canyon student will be an Adept Learner

- Commanding a core body of knowledge as required by the state academic standards
- Effectively accessing a variety of resources to interpret, synthesize, and analyze information
- Organizing ideas in a logical manner
- Possessing skills to be an independent learner

A Steele Canyon student will be a Complex Thinker and Problem Solver

- Being able to connect, apply, and appraise their learning in terms of educational and personal goals
- Being proficient in mathematical reasoning and numeracy
- Creating and critically analyzing multiple solutions to complex scenarios

A Steele Canyon student will be Technologically Proficient for the 21st Century

- Accessing, evaluating, and applying information from various electronic resources
- Incorporating technological skills into products and presentations
- Enhancing communication of knowledge through appropriate choice of technology

A Steele Canyon student will be a Contributing Member of His/Her Community

- Participating in service to others
- Being exposed to cultural, academic, and linguistic diversity through inclusive education
- Fostering awareness of school core values
- Participating in extra and co-curricular activities